Board of Realtors®

COOPERATIVE SPIRIT AWARD

PURPOSE

To recognize a member, including industry partners, who goes to extraordinary lengths to conduct business in a pleasurable and cooperative spirit.

NOMINATIONS

A candidate for the Cooperative Spirit Award may be nominated by any GAKA Member in good standing, including the Nominees manager and Industry Partner Members, in good standing. A narrative describing the activities which demonstrate the cooperative nature of the member, as well as the records indicating the participation in GAKA activities are the criteria which shall be considered for this award.

SELECTION

A selection committee composed of Four (4) GAKA Board of Directors shall be appointed by the presiding President of the Board. There may only be one committee member from any Brokerage firm. In the event of a tie when selecting the Cooperative Spirit Award, The Executive Officer of the board shall review all applications in the tied status and place the deciding vote. All applications must be submitted to the membership chairman by December 20th for consideration. All Nominees submitted for consideration of the award will receive an invitation to the Annual Installation Ceremony where the recipient of the Cooperative Spirit Award will be announced.
